Retreat Facilitators

Your retreat hosts, Shari and Mehtap, are exceptionally seasoned and gifted space holders, facilitators, and practitioners. Together, they seamlessly blend their unique talents to guide you on a transformative journey, helping you unlock a renewed version of yourself.

Mehtap / Met

With over 17 years of experience in energetic healing, Met or Mehtap has devoted her life to guiding others on their personal journeys toward healing and wholeness. As a Reiki Master, Intuitive Shamanic Healer, Sound Healer, Mentor and Yoga Teacher, Met is passionate about helping individuals find harmony within themselves. In 2013, Met founded Iridescence Healing in New Orleans. Her mission is to support people in finding inner peace and spiritual alignment by integrating various healing modalities such as Reiki, sound healing, breathwork, Kundalini yoga, wellness mentorship, and somatic nature retreats.

Met believes that a healthy body, mind, and soul provide the foundation for shedding the layers we've accumulated over time, allowing us to return to a state of freedom and connection with our true essence. It is through this holistic approach that individuals can rediscover their authentic selves and embrace the peace and clarity that reside within. Met is a Registered Hatha and Kundalini Yoga Teacher, Certified Sound Healer, Reiki Master, and breathwork, meditation facilitator.

Shari

Shari Taylor, PhD is a somatic therapist based in New Orleans. She was a co-investigator/study therapist for the MAPS Phase III Clinical Trial of MDMA-supported psychotherapy for the treatment of PTSD. She specializes in the treatment of depression, anxiety, PTSD, and the integration of psychedelic and other non-ordinary states of consciousness experiences. Dr. Taylor is dedicated to supporting others to explore the depths of their innermost being for healing and psychospiritual growth and transformation. She also has a long-standing interest in shamanism, indigenous cultures, ancient wisdom, and healing modalities. She has been blessed to work with many wise medicine people/elders, and travel to and hold ceremonies at sacred power places across the world. She is a Registered Yoga Teacher, Certified Sound Healer, Reiki practitioner, and meditation teacher.
